Dear Sir.

In memory of Jack Stephen Grenbath Stoker III (AGED 17). Jack was born on 20th January 1924, one of twin boys. Sadly the other twin never survived. Jack was run over by a motor car when he was two years old, and had his thigh broken, and had to have a silver plate inserted. When he was ten years old, the family moved to Wickham a harbour suburb of Newcastle. He loved the sea, always on the ships when they were in port, after souvenirs of any kind. In 1938 he was fourteen and on holidays in Sydney and fell down a cliff and had to be rescued by sea.
